

No Child Left Untested? What Does the No Child Left Behind Law Mean for My Child?

Thursday, April 3, 2008

7:00pm

Roseville Area Middle School Auditorium

A Forum for Parents, Educators and Community Members

You've heard a lot about this federal law. Come find out what it really means for your child and our district. Please join us to learn about No Child Left Behind and how it works in Minnesota, hear a range of views about the future of NCLB, and get your questions answered.

Keynote Speakers:

Commissioner Alice Seagren, with Assistant Commissioner Dr. Christy Hovanetz Lassila
Minnesota Department of Education

Presenters:

State Representative Mindy Greiling
Chair, House K-12 Finance Division

Senator David Hann
Ranking Minority Member, Senate Education Committee

Senator Chuck Wiger
Chair, Senate Education Committee

Dr. John Thein
Superintendent, Roseville Area Schools

Peter Olson-Skog
Supervisor of Programs, Roseville Area Schools Department of Teaching & Learning

Dr. Christopher Johnstone
National Center for Education Outcomes

Moderator:

Linda McLoon
Community Member, LAC & Former Roseville Area School Board Member (2000-2007)

Panel discussion with questions & answers to follow.

There is no admission charge for this event. For more information, contact LAC@isd623.org.

Sponsored by the Roseville Area Schools Legislative Action Committee